Pindyck, Robert

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

Articles:

“Optimal Stabilization Policies via Deterministic Control,” Annals of Economic and Social Measurement, October 1972.

“Pricing Policies for a Two-Part Exhaustible Resource Cartel: The Case of OPEC,” (with E.

“The Conflicting Goals of National Energy Policy,” (with R.E. Hall), The Public Interest, Spring 1977.

“Optimal Stabilization Policies under Decentralized Control and Conflicting Objectives,”

“Prices and Shortages: Evaluating Policy Options for the Natural Gas Industry,” in L.
Chickering and H. Rowen (Eds.), Options for U.S. Energy Policy, Institute for Contemporary

“Cartel Pricing and the Structure of the World Bauxite Market,” Bell Journal of Economics, Fall 1977.

“Gains to Producers from the Cartelization of Exhaustible Resources,” Review of Economics and “OPEC's Threat to the West,” Foreign Policy, Spring 1978.

“The Optimal Exploration and Production of Nonrenewable Resources,” Journal of Political Economy, October 1978.

“An Econometric Approach to Forecasting Demand and Firm Behavior: Canadian Telecommunications,” (with V. Corbo), in S. Markridakis and S. Wheelwright (Eds.), Forecasting, TIMS

“The Optimal Production of an Exhaustible Resource When Price Is Exogenous and Stochastic,”

July 1981.

(Eds.), Toward a New U.S. Industrial Policy, University of Pennsylvania Press, 1981.

“OPEC Oil Pricing and the Implications for Producers and Consumers,” in J. Griffin and D. Teece
(Eds.), OPEC Behavior and World Oil Prices, Allen & Unwin, 1982.

“The Optimal Phasing of Phased Deregulation,” Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control,
August 1982.

December 1982.

“Optimal Timing Problems in Environmental Economics,” Journal of Economic Dynamics

Book Reviews:

Review of Kemp and Long, Essays in the Economics of Exhaustible Resources, in The

Reports and Working Papers:

“Sunk Costs and Risk-Based Barriers to Entry,” draft working paper, June 2007.