Expand your global perspective

A flexible, innovative curriculum built on a rock solid foundation. Global action learning and world-renowned faculty. Collaboration, community, and an entrepreneurial spirit. The MBA program at MIT Sloan provides endless opportunities to learn, practice, and lead.

It’s a transformational two years where you will build fundamental leadership and management skills, gain confidence, and develop a strong professional network. You will find yourself surrounded by an adventurous learning community of passionate, highly motivated people who want to improve the world.

“MIT Sloan taught me so much about myself and challenged me both intellectually and personally. Without the opportunities this program provided, I would not be where I am today.”

—Vanessa Kafka, MBA ’12, General Manager, Hailo, Boston
Start with the core, then follow your own path

You will begin with the one-semester Core, a set of foundational classes that build essential knowledge and fundamental skills. From there, you will choose from a broad and deep selection of electives or gain specialized experience and study with like-minded classmates by pursuing a track or a certificate:

• Enterprise Management Track
• Entrepreneurship & Innovation Track
• Finance Track
• Sustainability certificate

Action learning

Theory plus real-world learning and personal reflection. Action learning is a key part of the MIT Sloan experience. You can choose from 13 action learning labs—including those focused on leading sustainable systems, global entrepreneurship, and global health delivery—participate in proseminars led by industry experts, or head out on an international study tour to explore real-world business challenges.

Integrate and collaborate

The MIT Sloan MBA experience creates opportunities to build community across campus. Small classes encourage teamwork and collaboration. Clubs, conferences, and events provide new ways to develop leadership skills. And our network of more than 22,000 MIT Sloan alumni and 120,000 MIT alumni create a network that lasts a lifetime. You will find yourself immersed in a community that thrives on genuine relationships, support, and celebrating successes.
