“MIT Sloan LGBTQI Club has been a huge reason why my first year has surpassed all of my expectations. We’re a small and tight-knit group that looks out for each other on all fronts—from issues of inclusion and activism to navigating careers and recruiting. Professionally, my favorite event that we sponsored was our workforce equality pledge, where 80% of Sloanies pledged against employment discrimination based on the grounds of sexual or gender identity.”
Tim Zachas, MBA 2018
Co-President of the MIT Sloan LGBTQI Club
