

MIT Sloan is located at the eastern end of the MIT campus, approximately 15 minutes by taxi or 30 minutes by subway (Kendall/MIT stop on the MBTA Red Line) from Logan Airport. Returning to the airport by car or taxi during rush hour or bad weather may require up to an hour.

Directions from Logan Airport:

- When driving from Logan Airport, merge onto MA-1A S toward I-93 N, Sumner Tunnel. Keep right to merge onto MA-1A S toward Sumner Tunnel, Government Center.
- Take exit onto MA-3 N, Storrow Drive. Exit left toward MA-28 N, Leverett Circle. Keep left toward MA-28 N and continue onto Charles River Dam Road.
- Turn left onto Edwin H Land Boulevard and then continue onto Memorial Drive.
- Turn right onto Wadsworth Street and our building is on your left.

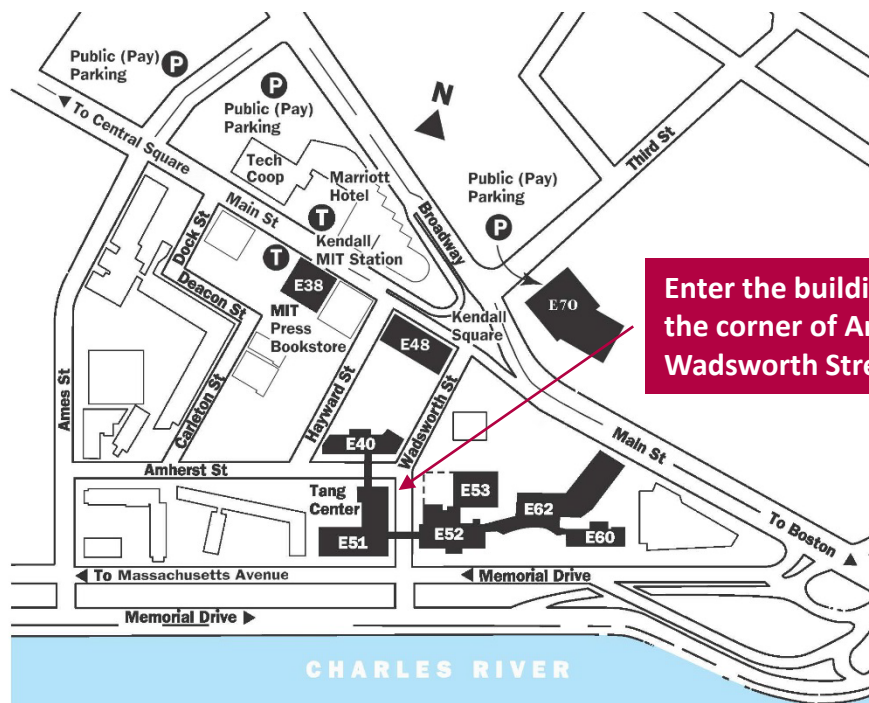

Parking:

Public parking lots are outlined on the map below. The Cambridge Marriott and the parking lot on Third Street are the closest available public lots. These are both about a 5-7 minute walk to our office.

Enter through the glass revolving door to the MIT Sloan building (E51) at the corner of Wadsworth and Amherst Streets.

GPS address (for taxis, etc.):

The building is identified as both 70 Memorial Drive and 2 Amherst Street. It is recommended to use 2 Amherst Street when using GPS or your smartphone. The easiest way to enter the building is on the corner of Wadsworth and Amherst Streets. Enter through the glass revolving door. Our office is located on the 2nd floor of the building.
