

Master of Finance Timeline

The MFin program provides a strong foundation in finance, with the option to customize your curriculum based on interests and career goals.

Academics to Support Your Goal

You can build advanced finance and quant skills, while also accessing MIT courses. Choose from 5 optional concentrations. Plus, each semester offers a new Action Learning Lab opportunity.

Optional Concentrations

- Capital Markets
- Climate and Social Impact Finance
- Corporate Finance
- Financial Engineering
- Fintech

Action Learning Labs

- Investment Management Lab (Fall)
- Finance Lab (Winter)
- Private Equity, Investment Banking, and Corporate Finance Lab (Spring)

Summer 1 > July–August

- Corporate Financial Accounting
- Financial Mathematics
- Foundations of Modern Finance
- Programming for Finance Professionals

Fall 1 > September–December

- Analytics of Finance
- Corporate Finance
- Financial Markets
- Investment Management Lab

Winter 1 > January

- Finance Lab

Spring 1 > February–May

- Communications (12-month only)
- Finance Ethics & Regulation
- Investment Banking, and Corporate Finance Lab
- Additional Electives

May
12-month
graduation!

Summer 2 > June–August

- Professional Development/Internship

Fall 2 > September–December

- Communications (18-month only)
- Complete Degree Requirements
- Additional Electives

February
18-month
graduation!

